Of the Strike is Now Near

Is the Opinion

Of Many Who Know the Situation.

Conference of Leaders to be Held in Pittsburgh Tomorrow.

President Shaffer and Secretary Williams Meet With Officials of the Trust and Pave the Way.

Pittsburgh, July 29.—The strike of the steel and tin workers of the Amalgamated Association against the United States Steel corporation will probably be settled this week. The conference held in New York between the officials of the corporation and President T. J. Shaffer and Secretary John Williams of the workers' organization has resulted in paving the way for renewals of negotiations between the two conflicting interests. It is said that a basis for such a conference has been arrived at. This basis will not be divulged until later in the week. If the basis is satisfactory to the general executive committee the conference between the association and the manufacturers will proceed at once. If, on the other hand, the basis is not what the Amalgamated Association considers negotiable grounds, the strike will continue.

President Shaffer and Secretary Williams of the Amalgamated Association returned from New York, where they spent many hours in conference with the leading officials of the steel trust, with hopes for an early ending of the strike. In Pittsburgh little was known of the conference, but the greatest interest in the outcome was shown among the manufacturers. Secretary Williams admitted that he had been with President Shaffer in New York and had seen J. P. Morgan, but he would not say what had taken place there. He said he was pledged to secrecy. Asked if the terms as printed in the papers which covered the settlement of the strike were correct, he replied that they were purely guesswork, as no terms could possibly be made without the full consent of the general executive committee of the organization, of which a meeting has been called for Tuesday.

Secretary Williams denied that M. M. Garland or Joseph Hill had anything to do with the conference in any way so far as he knew.

It is believed that before the end of the week the mills will all be ready to run again, providing repairs undertaken since the strike began are completed. Should the whole project fail of coming to an amicable end, however, the fight promises to be more bitter than ever.

Secretary Williams says the strike program will not be changed in any way prior to the time set for the executive board meeting, but nothing of a radical nature will likely take place before then.

Called to the Conference.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 29.—Vice President Walter Larkins of Amalgamated Association's local district received a call from President Shaffer for a meeting of the national executive board of the Amalgamated Association, to be held Tuesday morning in Pittsburgh. Mr. Larkins said the call meant that another conference would be held by the board with the representatives of the steel combination Tuesday at Pittsburgh. He feels confident the strike will be settled at this conference.

Yesterday evening at the home of the bride's parents on east Kibby street, Rev. The wedding ceremony was one of the most elaborate of the season. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at Kempton, where the groom will teach school this winter. Both persons are favorably and well known in this city, also at Spencerville. Midway Shows at the Pan-American Kept Closed Sunday.

Buffalo, July 29.—Attempt of the midway shows to open for business Sunday was a failure. The first show to announce that it was ready for business was the Indian congress. In front of the concession were two of the directors of the concern and their attorneys. Captain Laguard of the exposition police force notified them to close, which they did under protest. Later another attempt was made to open the show. Iron pipes were driven into the asphalt pavement by the police department. From the pipes a rope was stretched in the form of a square, which completely blocked the entrance to the Indian congress. The concessionaires then ordered the ticket sellers to desist. Several other shows opened their doors for a few minutes by were closed by the police.

Foundries Not Reopened.

Chicago, July 29.—Members of the National Foundrymen's association were forced to abandon their plan of opening their foundries. The liability of agents of the association to secure a sufficient number of nonunion men to take the places of striking iron molders is responsible for the change in their plans. At a conference of leading foundrymen it was discovered that it would be impossible to get men enough to carry on the work in the various shops in the city. Instead of 500 men who were expected to arrive in the city less than 50 had been secured by agents of the manufacturers. It was consequently decided that the opening would be indefinitely delayed.

"South African Gooseberry."

London, July 29.—United States Ambassador Choate has left London for Holland. Rumor has it that he did not go for a holiday, but at the invitation of Mr. Kruger, who desires him to act as mediator in bringing about a settlement. It would naturally be supposed that a settlement could not take place without the irrefragable Dr. Leyds, but if Mr. Choate has gone to Holland, Dr. Leyds has left the country for Brussels, starting Saturday. No importance is attached to this rumor, for the paper which prints it refers to it editorially in a facetious vein as a "South African gooseberry."

Tornado in North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., July 29.—A heavy rain and wind storm prevailed over a good part of the state, and the greatest damage is reported at Tappen, 125 miles west of Fargo, where it amounted to a tornado. A church, a store and some dwellings and barns were blown down and the Northern Pacific depot, unroofed. Wires were down for some hours and crops damaged by the storm, which was several miles wide. In the northern part there was not much wind, but around Fargo and over in Minnesota grain was damaged.

Row in a Cleveland Park.

Cleveland, July 29.—In a row at Forest City park Otto B. Seofried, manager of the park, it is claimed shot into a crowd that was raising a disturbance and fatally injured Thomas Murtzga, a bullet going through his abdomen. Edward Yarnham was shot in the knee, but not seriously injured. A squad of policemen found Seofried inside an engine house with revolver in his hand and arrested him. A number of persons surrounded the engine house but the police dispersed them.

She Wouldn't Marry Him.

Muncie, Ind., July 29.—Peter Tilly, an iron worker, called at the home of Kate Phinney and throw the contents of a small bottle filled with carbolic acid into the face of Mrs. Mary Torrey, a guest, burning out the woman's eyes and burning her neck, breast and arms frightfully. The man pleaded with the woman for years to marry him.

Chinese Reforms Ordered.

Peking, July 29.—Li Hung Chang, Prince Ching and Kun Yang, resident members of the regency board have received from the throne a long communication laying down general instructions as to reform, honesty of administration and the desirability of initiating all meritorious features of the institutions of Japan and western nations.

Tree-Saved Him.

Lauterbrunnen, July 29.—Herr Watter, the Austrian tourist, while descending the Faulhorn, fell over a precipice and lodged in a tree 50 feet down. He was rescued without being seriously hurt.

The Blood HEALTHY OR DISEASED

When there is a natural and healthy circulation of the blood, the entire quantity, estimated at one-eighth the weight of the body, passes through the heart every five minutes. This rapid flow of the blood through the system prevents the entrance of disease germs and impurities of every description. It filters out all that is not necessary or good for the growth and development of the body and nourishing and strengthening the muscles, tissues, nerves and bones. But, unfortunately, few persons can rightly claim an absolutely pure blood supply and perfect and unimpeded circulation, and in consequence are exposed to numerous diseases. Contagious Blood Poison, the greatest enemy to mankind, enters the system through the blood, and Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetters—in fact the majority of human ailments—are caused by poisons or humors that are engendered and fostered in a sluggish and impoverished blood. Old sores, chronic ulcers and rheumatic pains are common, especially among old people, whose blood naturally grows thin and pale because of the lack of the red corpuscles that give color and strength to youthful blood. Sallow complexions and rough, oily skins evidence some constitutional or blood trouble, which salves, lotions, powders or any external treatment can cure. Diseases that originate in the blood, whether they manifest themselves as ulcers, tumors, itching eruptions, muscular or bone pains, require a tonic and blood purifier such as S. S. S., which not only antidotes and neutralizes blood poisons and humors, but possesses health-giving tonic properties that no other blood medicine does. It goes down to the very foundation of the disease and eliminates from the system everything of a poisonous character or that obstructs and clogs the circulation. It builds up and imparts new strength and vitality to the old, unfruitful blood, and when the arteries and veins are once more filled with new rich blood, the general health begins to improve, muscles grow stronger, and sores and eruptions of every kind disappear.

The Blood is the Source of All Strength

S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier, and the purest and most reliable in all blood diseases. It has been tested in thousands of cases during the past fifty years and is more popular today than ever. We will be glad to send you our book free, and if in need of medical advice write our physicians all about your case; this information will cost you nothing and comes from experienced and educated doctors. All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence.

Struck by Lightning, Yet Lives.

Richmond, Ky., July 29.—During an electrical storm at Berea, Malen Baker, white, while cutting wood under a chestnut tree, was struck by lightning and narrowly escaped death. The bolt struck him on the right shoulder, wound around his body, scorching his breast and limbs black, rending his clothing and tearing the shoes from his feet. When found a few minutes later he was thought to be dead, but was revived and is able to relate his terrible experience.

Chicago Cooled Off.

Chicago, July 29.—For half an hour in Chicago Sunday the percentage of humidity was 33, with the thermometer registering 90 in the shade. Not a breath of air was stirring at the time and the atmosphere was suffocating. At 1 o'clock a heavy downpour of rain and a stiff breeze from the lake brought relief, in less than an hour the temperature dropping 16 degrees. Over three-quarters of an inch of rain fell during the afternoon.

Youngstown Loses a Factory.

Youngstown, O., July 29.—The Youngstown plant of the tin can trust will be removed to Cleveland, where it will be operated in connection with the plant at Cleveland. Fatal Dash For Liberty.

Monticello, Fla., July 29.—Simon Williams, condemned to death for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Hawkins and sentenced to hang Aug. 2, made a dash for liberty. His condition is critical.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty, of Lexington Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitter, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by H. F. Vorkamp, druggist.

Boys Were Fighting.

Father of One Interfered and Was Killed by Father of the Other.

Bedford, Ind., July 29.—At Reed's Station, this county, John Beasley was shot and instantly killed by Nelson Fritz and his son, the father employing the contents of a shot gun into the victim's abdomen and the son firing two shots from a revolver into Beasley's head. The sons of Beasley and Fritz were engaged in a fist fight and when Beasley interfered on behalf of his boy the elder Fritz objected. A general row followed with results as stated.

A Young Man Who is Wanted at Fremont Arrested by Lieutenant
Wingate This Morning—
Mayor's Court.

Yesterday afternoon patrolman Bacome apprehended and arrested F. H. Taylor, an alleged fugitive who was wanted by the U. S. government secret service department for an alleged crime that was committed in Lansing, Mich. The prisoner gave his name as F. H. Taylor and claimed to be a laborer. He was turned over to United States secret service officer Wagner and was taken to Cleveland where he will be arraigned before a United States commissioner.

It is alleged that Taylor received and cashed a letter that was intended for another man of the same name at Lansing, Mich., and that he appropriated to his own use a $20 bill that the letter contained.

WANTED AT FREMONT.
This morning Lieut. Wingate found and arrested Clifford Jones, a young man giving his age as 18 years, who is wanted on a serious charge at Fremont, O. The officer found Jones along the Spencerville road near Herve street, and turned him over to officer Bacome who locked him up. The sheriff of Fremont was notified and will be here to take charge of the prisoner this evening.

Nothing definite is known here concerning the charges against Jones, but it is understood that he is alleged to have been implicated in the attempt that was made to liberate George Furey and Charles Montague from the Fremont jail recently, the latter two former Lima boys being held there at the time on charges of burglary.

MAYOR'S COURT.
William Kennedy and Al Kanan, of the south side, were arrested today for having engaged in a fight in a south side saloon Saturday night. Kanan pleaded guilty and was fined $10. Kennedy was also charged with having kicked down a door at his home but he denied this and was remanded to the city prison to await a further investigation.

LIMA'S

Tennis Champions Play at Cleveland.

The McLaughlin Bros. Will Try to Wrest the Championship from Emerson and Diehl.

Tom and Warren McLaughlin, Lima's tennis champions and winners of the series in doubles at the North Western Ohio tournament, left yesterday to take part in the annual tennis tournament under the auspices of the Cleveland East End Tennis club.

This afternoon Warren McLaughlin will play Paulhaber and Tom McLaughlin will be pitted against Elroy and the singles. As the doubles the McLaughlin Bros. will play Stage and Diehl. The winner of the finals in singles will play Nat Emerson, of Cincinnati, the present state champion, and the winners of doubles will play Emerson and Diehl, the latter two of Cincinnati.

Both of the Cincinnati champions were in Lima when the tournament was held here, and the McLaughlin Bros. made an excellent showing. That they have improved greatly since then is evidenced by their work against Findlay a few weeks ago, when their opponent failed to get a single score in both singles and doubles.

WILSON

Had the Best of the Bout
With Mackey

But According to Previous Agreement the Referee Declared the Contest a Draw.

Some of the best work ever seen in this city displayed at the Davis opera house by Tommie Wilson of Cincinnati in his go with Biz Mackey, the clever local boxer, says the Findlay Courier. The work cut out by the visitor was of the championship order and from the beginning of the contest to the end, he showed that he held the victory in the palm of his hand.

In accordance with the previous agreement at the end of the tenth round Referee Hart called the bout a draw, but at the same time stated that if a decision was to be returned it would certainly be in favor of Wilson. Not that Mackey was such a novice in his more skillful opponent's hands as indicated in the appearance of the bout but it was more a case of inexperience failing to make an impression against a ring general with nine ears in the game.

There is a Rapidly Increasing Volume of Lima Evidence Rolling up for the Great Medicine Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

It would seem that hardly anyone can take Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills without receiving marked benefit. The wonderful action of this medicine in putting people on their feet who are in a weak run down condition is the talk of every place they are known. It is only a short time since they first came to Lima yet today they are more in evidence for merit with Lima people than all other medicines combined. Mr. B. W. Blair, of 133 east Market street, Lima, Ohio, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are all right. I found them a medicine that could and would steady the nerves, give good general strength and a feeling of vigor. It was when I got the medicine at Van Melville's drug store first run down out of sorts. One thing I know they did me more good than anything of the kind I ever took. I feel right good and well every way again." Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. DEATH'S HAND

Terminates the Illness of A.
C. Schall.

Remains Will be Brought to Lima from Richmond, Ind., and the Funeral Held Here.

The sad information was received here this morning from Richmond, Ind., announcing the death of Mr. A. C. Schall, whose serious illness was mentioned by the TIMES-DEMOCRAT a week or ten days ago. As will be remembered Mr. Schall became ill at Hartford City, Ind., where he had been located for several years engaged as a contractor in the oil fields. He was removed to a hospital at Richmond, Ind., and a few days ago his relatives in this city were summoned to his bedside by the announcement that there were no hopes of his recovery. His death occurred at 8 o'clock last night.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Schall, the former a brother of the deceased, returned from Richmond this morning and the remains will arrive here over the C. H. & D. at 4:30 o'clock, accompanied by the deceased's father-in-law, Maurice Riley, to whose home at 718 North Main street, the body will be taken. The deceased was about 39 years of age and is survived by his wife and two children—Mr. M. S. Schall, of west Market street, is a brother of the deceased.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

FIRE

Caused by Engine
Sparks.

Field of Oats

Makes a Merry Blaze
East of Lima

And Agent Crooks of the Pennsylvania Captained
Fire Brigade.

Monster Excursion Conducted by the C. H. & D. to Toledo Yesterday, the Three Trains
Carrying 1100 People.

Freight agent Crooks of the Pennsylvania was called from home about noon yesterday by a telephone message announcing that sparks from an engine had set fire to a field of oats about a mile east of Lima.

Engine No. 2 was hastily put into service, and gathering from the clerks and other local employees such assistance as could be hastily mustered, the fire fighters repaired to the scene of the conflagration. They found the report to be true and not only a great number of shocks of oats had already been destroyed but the fence was also being rapidly consumed.

Under Mr. Crooks' directions the work of preventing a further spread of the flames met with good results and the fire then burning was afterwards put out with water from the engine tanks. The bucket brigade did noble work and the fire department returned home about three o'clock with the evidence of their unusual task plainly observable.

The farm where the fire occurred is owned by Samuel E. Collins, of this city, but is under lease to Charles Munnigh. The amount of damage has not yet been determined, but there were 59 shocks of oats destroyed in addition to several hundred feet of fence.

Went Beyond Calculations.

Arrangements were made to accommodate a big crowd on the C. H. & D. excursion to Toledo yesterday but it was not expected that such numbers would respond. The train was run from Wapakoneta, and the fare of $1 was good on Nos. 44, 60 and 6. The first train was packed, and those who were unable to get seats, filled the aisles and platforms. The 250 from Wapakoneta had the advantage and when Lima was reached 500 more were waiting, and there was a siege of humanity pushing and jostling to get on board. No. 44 carried 500 passengers into Toledo and Nos. 60 and 6 had 200 more, making 1100 in all. The excursion was run on account of the encampment of the Second regiment and the boys no doubt thought that Lima had been depopulated.

Finding Must Stand.

A short session of common pleas court was held Saturday morning at defiance which Judge Hubbard overruled a motion to set aside the finding in the C. L. & M. railroad case. He also overruled a motion to decrease the amount of the appeal bond in the same case. Notice of appeal of the matter was given at the time it was decided a few days ago.

Effective August 1. After that time Frank Ferris, who has been general freight and passenger agent, will have the title of general freight agent only.

"Mr. Henry is a Toledo boy who has made rapid progress in the railroad world. He began his railroad career under Col. James M. Hall, when that gentleman was general passenger agent of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad and remained with him until he retired in 1897. He began as a stock clerk, but before he retired was made chief clerk and in that capacity made a good record. He was an unflinching worker and under the splendid tutelage of Col. Hall laid a good foundation. He retired from the Wheeling to take the position of chief clerk to Charles Chambers, who was then general passenger and freight agent of the Detroit & Lima Northern. When Mr. Chambers retired Mr. Henry became general passenger agent of the Rapid Transit system of electric lines which was operated between Detroit and Port Huron, Mich. The business of this line has grown rapidly under his administration.

"Mr. Henry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Henry, who resides at 1303 Western avenue. His father is a freight conductor on the Lake Shore railroad.

Gen'l Supt. L. E. & W. A. H. Smith, general superintendent of the Lake Shore has had his jurisdiction extended over the L. E. & W. system, official circulars having already been issued and received here announcing the change. The headquarters of Mr. Smith will remain in Cleveland.

Big Excursion Day.
The L. E. & W. had the banner excursion day of the summer yesterday, hauling several thousand passengers to and from various points. In spite of the numerous counter attractions the regular train into Sandusky carried 640 passengers and about 700 were taken to Indianapolis from Sandusky and way stations. The chief point of interest for the day was Elwood where the new St. Joseph's church was dedicated. Excursions were run from several points on both the main line and Indiana branches and in all there were about 1700 people taken into the Indiana town on the several trains.

Order About Air Brakes.

The Pennsylvania has just issued an order to the effect that all freight cars with defective air brake apparatus must be labeled with cards which will read: "Defective Air Brake," and the cards must be placed in a conspicuous position in order that conductors will make no mistakes in putting them in the circuit. Such mistakes have caused much trouble in the past and a remedy was badly needed. The cards will be on hand at all division points.

C. H. & D. Notes.

Fireman Richmond dead headed to Dayton last night and came back with the local, taking the place of fireman Kerr, who is reported sick. Conductor Simmons has had to give up his run again because of illness. He returned to work after feeling much improved, but his recovery was retarded by the work and weather and he will take a trip to Mt. Clemons.

Engineer Dave Bogart and assistant Superintendent Shoemaker went to Columbus Grove yesterday to spend the day at Mr. Bogart's home. A drive to "Rattlesnake", where there is some fair fishing helped to make the visit all the more pleasant.

Engineer Charles Rockhill opened his mail at Toledo yesterday as usual. Engineer Whitman, who returned to the C. H. & D. about two weeks ago, after a trial out of Chicago, has Rockhill's run during the latter's lay off. He has the 201 in 407 but yesterday took the 113 north with No. 6.

Extra conductor Beedle has been put in charge of car 27 to relieve conductor Saunders who is off on sick leave.

Brakeman W. J. Perry has been transferred from the north end local run to car 32 on the "long runs." In place of Bresman, who resumes work on car 41. Brakeman F. W. Hill goes on the north end local.

North bound business is particularly heavy, and it was necessary to run three lights from Toledo to Lima today.

Brakeman Lange has resumed work on the C. F. & N. local after an illness of several weeks. Conductor Barnett has resumed work after a few days absence.

Fireman Shuler, Sullivan and Geo. Shoemaker have passed the final examination conducted by assistant superintendent Shoemaker and will step up into the ranks of C. H. & D. engineers. Fireman Ireland has passed the mechanical examination and will stand the final test in the course of a few days.

Extra brakeman Jennings has been sent up on the C. F. & N. branch, and will run on the local for a few days, relieving brakeman Young.

Passenger conductor M. Clifford resumed his run today on the C. F. & N. branch after an illness of several weeks.

General Notes.

Owing to the Toledo excursion yesterday, attractions on other lines out of Lima did not draw as largely as would have been the case otherwise. The Lake Erie carried about 300 from the city distributing them at Indianapolis, Elwood and Cedar Point.

The Chicago & Erie excursion to Chicago caught in the neighborhood of a hundred people from Lima. The train was run from Spencerville in order to conform with the agreement with the Pennsylvania not to put a Chicago excursion out of Lima, but there is an earlier train from here which enabled Lima passengers to reach Spencerville before the hour of the excursion trains departure.

Trinity and Grace Methodist churches have decided upon August 28th for their excursion to Lakeview.

Carried the Third Regiment.
The C. H. & D. carried the Third regiment, O. N. G. from Dayton to Toledo this afternoon on two special trains, one of which was in charge of conductor Durbin and the other in charge of conductor Wise. They passed through Lima about 1:30. The Third regiment will encamp on the grounds vacated by the Second today.

TAUNTED

Profane Words.

Divorce Case No. 5 was Filed Saturday Afternoon the Plaintiff
Being Mrs. Velma B.
Decker.

The week in court opened and closed with a divorce suit and three others were filed in between making a total of five for the period. Mrs. Velma B. Decker is the latest applicant for relief and she recites the old chapter of cruelty and abuse in a somewhat new form. She was married, she says, to Isaac C. Decker at Canonsburg, Hancock county, October 26, 1899, but fortunately no children were born to share the disgrace.

The extent of the defendant's cruelty and abuse consisted of the use of harsh, violent and profane language, but he was also given to taunting her and boasting of his individual popularity with another woman. It is charged that he read letters to his wife, coming from the woman in question and would frequently tell his wife how much he loved the one that had come between them.

Failure to provide for the plaintiff, although well able to do so, and adultery committed with Jessie Williamson, of Bluffton are additional allegations contained in the petition. Mrs. Decker says she suffered greatly in mind because of such treatment and finally on the 24th of September, 1900, she left the defendant and has since lived with her parents. In addition to a divorce and reasonable alimony, she asks the restoration of her maiden name, which was Velma B. Maregead. H. O. Bentley attorney for plaintiff.

HONORED

Is a Lima Firm by Eight Surrounding Counties.

As the time of the Allen county fair draws nearer and merchants are figuring on their displays, the old reliable firm of D. S. Porter & Son is as usual in the front rank, and making great preparations. Already this firm has received urgent requests from eight different counties in northwestern Ohio to be present and help make their fair a success. People are beginning to appreciate the value of this up-to-date firm and patronize them accordingly.

For the best make of phonographs and the very latest records Porter & Son's is the place to go.

A few days ago Mr. Ben Dennis, the popular proprietor of the Mint cafe, happily surprised his daughter, who is in St. Marys, by presenting her with a beautiful George Steck piano. A wiser selection could not have been made for their is nothing finer in the land. However, if one prefers another make, the old reliable firm carry eleven other makes. What more could the public ask?

With Porter & Son are also two first class piano tuners and repairers, Mr. Chas. O'Harrow and Mr. M. H. Adler. Both of these gentlemen are competent and can be relied upon to give entire satisfaction. If you appreciate something better than the rest, a call at Porter & Son's on south Main street will interest you.

Woman and Her Husband Came to the Rescue.

Joseph Schwartz, a driver for Swift & Co., was in a position to protect his wife from the insults of a gang of toughs at the transfer station last night, and he did it in such a manner that there was little time left for argument. One of a party of three stepped up to Mrs. Schwartz, who was accompanied by her husband and two children and asked her to step inside so he could speak to her. Instead of a reply from the lady, the ill-bred tough received a smash in the jaw that straightened him out on the street. He picked himself up and sneaked away with his companions, without stopping to argue the point.

CONSTIPATION

"I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition. During that time I did everything I could to get relief, but I was not cured until I began using CASCARET. Now I have freedom to move my bowels a day, and I am rich I would give $100 for such movement, it is such a relief."

SOLDIERS IN MIMIC WAR

Secretary Root's Plan For Increasing the Army's Efficiency.

BIG INSTRUCTION CAMP PROPOSED

It Will Be Established at Fort Riley, Where the Troops Will Be Instructed in All the Movements of Actual Warfare—Infantry and Cavalry Schools.

As a result of Secretary Root's trip west the war department at Washington will soon adopt a plan for increasing the efficiency of the army, which contemplates the opening of the infantry and cavalry school at Fort Leavenworth not later than Dec. 1 and the cavalry and artillery school at Fort Riley probably as early as Sept. 1. The most extensive scheme for the improvement of the army under consideration, however, relates to the formation of an immense camp of instruction at Fort Riley, where over 20,000 acres are available for this purpose, says the New York Sun. Congress made an appropriation to be used in selecting sites for four large camp grounds, but owing to the lack of officers in the United States Secretary Root has been unable up to this time to do anything toward selecting sites for this purpose. It is well determined, though, that there will be a great maneuvering camp at Fort Riley, but whether this will form one of the four which congress had in mind or be an addition to them has not yet been decided. Secretary Root said the other afternoon:

"An extensive stretch of territory such as we have at Fort Riley, comprising 20 square miles, will permit the evolution of a large number of men. All of the recent changes in the art of war have arisen from improvements in small arms, making it desirable to have a large field for drill purposes. The old method of soldiers marching shoulder to shoulder into battle has disappeared, and the old field parade drill has become of less consequence. Soldiers are now widely separated in battle and as they advance take advantage of every natural object to secure protection from the enemy. There are greater individuality and more independence in operations on the part of the men.

"We are returning to the methods used by our forefathers in fighting the Indians. To train men to do what they must do large stretches of ground are necessary. The value of extensive reservations has consequently appreciated. Before the Spanish war Fort Leavenworth was used as a school of theoretical instruction, where the officers studied books and participated in class recitations, while at Fort Riley there was established a school of application for cavalry and light artillery. They did not study books at Riley. They endeavored to carry out in practice the things they had learned in theory at Leavenworth."

Secretary Root explained that the number of troops to be stationed at Fort Riley would be increased to one full regiment of cavalry and five batteries of artillery. The plan for camp instruction contemplates the mobilization at that point of as many regular troops as can be spared from the different posts at one time, together with large bodies of national guard soldiers. They will be placed in camp and thorough instruction given them in camp organization and duties and will from time to time be formed into brigades and carried through the different tactical movements of actual warfare. Mimic battles will be fought, plans of attack and defense worked out and long marches made for the purpose of familiarizing both officers and enlisted men with the work which they would have to perform in case of war.

Fort Leavenworth will continue to have the infantry and cavalry school for the instruction of officers, and it is proposed to increase the class of instruction there from 40 men to 100. The post at that place will also be increased to one regiment of infantry, one squadron of cavalry, one battery of siege artillery, one battery of field artillery and one mountain battery. In discussing the sites for four of these camps Secretary Root said that he was in favor of locating one of them in the east, but had not yet taken under consideration any sites for that purpose. A proper site will necessarily require a large stretch of ground and should at the same time be accessible to railroad transportation to facilitate the arrival of the soldiers participating.

MUSIC AS AN ANÆSTHETIC.

Interesting Series of Experiments Conducted at Berlin.

Drs. Dresser and Moreau of Berlin are carrying out a series of promising experiments in which the medical world—with laymen, too—is deeply interested, in which music is utilized as an anæsthetic in surgical operations upon the head and face, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. The plan adopted is to insert a phonograph receiver into the ear of a patient. An agreeable sleep is produced, and most difficult operations in dentistry have been performed without a particle of suffering to the subject.

Another interesting experiment is that of touching the chair of a patient with a violin while the instrument is being played, which causes insensibility to pain akin to that produced by hypnotic influence.

Stingless Bees. British naturalists, having discovered stingless bees that make honey in the island of Montserrat, are trying to improve the breed with the object of supplying the kinds of bees that have stings.

THE NILE RESERVOIRS.

Keene at the Great Works Near Cairo.

The work of damming the Nile was commenced in 1890 at Assuan, near the first cataract, and also at Assiout, 200 miles nearer Cairo, where the "supplemental" dam will be, says J. Ward in Cassier's Magazine for August. Within a few months 20,000 men were employed. The scene in 1900 at Assuan, with crowds of willing workers, railways and locomotives, great cranes by hundreds, toiling away under Egypt's blue sky and burning sun, baffles description. The din, the screaming steam engines, the noise of blasting operations, the babble of confused tongues, Arabic, English, Italian, Greek, French and of Nubians and Sudanese, who talk some unknown lingo, is deafening even above the roar of what remains of the cataract. Around us is a waste of destroyed granite masses torn to pieces with dynamite. A huge bank of earth and stones keeps the Nile from breaking in where the masons work along the line of wall. Huge cranes lift immense blocks of granite, swing them round and deftly deposit each in its proper bed. Later we see the iron grooved sashes built in the openings where the gates will be placed.

Kantastic granite rocks rise up toward the south, bounding the view, while northward stretches the sandy desert, intersected by barren sandstone cliffs. Along the river's edge are graves of date palms. The whole is a very wonderful scene, of indescribable beauty in the distance, with Titanic destruction of every natural feature of the landscape going on in old foreground, a pandemonium let loose upon a paradise.

The Assiout barrage, 200 miles down the Nile, is intended as a subsidiary weir to hold up the water so as to supply the old Ibrahimieh canal and also new canals at higher level than before. It will thus supply districts not benefited in modern times by irrigation. The Assiout dam is smaller and less pretentious than the one at Assuan, but like it, deals with the entire river and will effect quite as great a work in the regeneration of the country.

HAVANA DOCK DISPOSITION.

An Engineering Problem For the Navy Experts.

A spirited discussion of engineering problems has begun in the bureau of construction and repair of the navy as to whether the Havana drydock, bought a few days ago, can be towed successfully to Subig bay, writes the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Public Ledger. This is the destination that Admiral Bowles, chief of the bureau, has selected for this dock, and the plan he has in mind is to send it through the Suez canal. Other naval engineers declare that the dock is too large and of too great draft to pass through the canal. The great English battleship Powerful could not make the passage of the canal, and the dock is said to be practically as large as the Powerful.

The distance by the canal to Manila is 12,000 miles, and the risks of the long voyage are great. The Spanish government paid $100,000 to tow the dock from Glasgow to Havana, and that distance is hardly more than one-third of the voyage to the Philippines. If the expense of the voyage should be in proportion, it would cost far more to take the dock to Subig bay than it does to buy it from Spain. It is certain that the government needs a dock at Subig bay. The cost of sending our vessels to Hongkong or Nagasaki to be docked for repairs or cleaning is very great, and the presence of the Havana dock there would save several times the cost of the dock in a year.

Congress may come to the rescue with an appropriation for a dock at Subig bay and a fully equipped naval station there according to the plans and desires of the department. The season is now so far advanced that it would not be safe or practicable to tow the Havana dock on its long voyage to the east until next spring, and by that time the whole problem may be settled by congress.

FINE DEPOSIT OF IVORY.

Colorado Miner Unearthed Remains of Mastodons in Alaska.

Thomas McQuillan, an old time Colorado miner, stopped in Denver the other day on his way to the Smithsonian institution and told of a remarkable Alaskan find, the value of which he puts at a fabulous figure, says the New York Times. It is a deposit of prehistoric ivory which, he says, he found while out prospecting with a large party of Indians.

"We had been out some time," he says, "and while working in a gulch found signs of the presence of the remains of the arctic mastodon. On further investigation I determined that we were on the scene of a titanic conflict between a number of the monsters. Some had undoubtedly died while battling for the supremacy of the herd, while the majority had probably perished in the gulch and perished in some way which it would be difficult to account for."

"It was hard to determine the exact extent of the ivory deposit, but I don't believe that anything like it exists elsewhere in the world. My Indian friends took a small amount, apparently not appreciating its commercial value, and merely secured enough to satisfy their wants. I loaded up 1,000 pounds and succeeded in bringing it to this country."

What Europe May Expect.

The American circus continues to penetrate the wilds of Europe and create endless talk and sensation. Later on, says the Washington Post, we may send them the tireless merry go round and the rollicking roller coaster.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure.

"For years I have been greatly bothered with kidney trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession with no relief, until I was induced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After using three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles, for I can honestly state I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success."

THE STEEL WORKERS.

Life of the Strikers and Their Families.

WIVES ORCHER ON THEIR HUSBANDS

Women the Chief Sufferers, and They Are Most Bitter and Aggressive in Urging the Men to Join the Strike, Says Grace Leves—Many Men Fishing or Camping.

Popular fancy during strike times pictures the strikers standing around a mill or workshop with a club in hand determined to repel the invasion of new men. The present strike of over 50,000 steel workers of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers presents no such picture. A stranger can walk by any Pittsburgh mill and not see half a dozen strikers, says Grace Leves in the New York World.

Hundreds of them have quit the city and while enjoying themselves in sylvan glades hope the strike will last all summer.

Hundreds of mill men who walked out and will not walk in again until ordered by their officers are enjoying themselves at fishing camps about the Ohio, Monongahela, Youngbush and Cheat rivers. Most of them are members of clubs which take a summer outing. Others formed clubs where they saw the strike coming and rushed for the woods as soon as the strike order went into effect. Some of them took their wives and children. Others left their families at home to soothe and gossip about the duration of the strike.

The upper Monongahela river is dotted on both sides with white canvas tents. So is the Youngbush. There are few along the Ohio because the fishing is not so good. The McKeesport strikers have half a dozen camps. Every man at Camp Victory has his wife with him. Camp Resolute is now by with 50 single men, who have cooks and servants to wait upon them as inhabitants.

There are camps at Galesport, Confluence, Monongahela City and other places. Here the men lounge on the grass or in hammocks, fish when they feel inclined, row, battle and have a good time generally. In the evenings there are entertainments, many of the campers being clever dramatic amateurs and musicians.

The men have worked long and steady at good wages. Many of the mills had three shifts—that is, ran 24 hours a day with three sets of men, each working eight hours. Labor was scarce all during the strike year which ended June 30, and many of the men worked 36 hours a day. No wonder they dropped from exhaustion at the first spell of hot weather, and no wonder they rushed off to camp hoping the strike will not end until fall. These are the finishers, the better paid class of mill labor, whose wages range from $4 per day upward.

With the common mill laborer and others whose daily wage is below $2 per day it is the women who bear the brunt of a strike. It is their ears which will hear the children ask for bread. And yet in this strike, as in others, the women stand shoulder to shoulder with the men, inspiring enthusiasm in the fighters, and with a determination to help their men out, let the end be what it may.

Miles of streets on the south side of Pittsburgh are built up of the little houses of mill workers, and under each roof beats a woman's heart strong for the strike. A journey through these streets revealed but one sentiment among the better class of women, who lead the spirit.

"My man goes out today," said Mrs. Tim Blake, a stalwart woman in German's alley, whose hands, wrinkled and shriveled from the family wash-rub, showed a worn wedding ring. "I don't know how long it may last. I don't know much about these things because I can't read, and what I know is only what Tim and the childer tells me, but I know it's for the good of the workman, and no woman who is worth the name will be agin't that good."

Never was in a strike before except one, when I was just married and had but one child. Then my man went east into the coal mines. He sent me $3 a week, and I lived on that and helped others that hadn't so much."

A towheaded urchin clung to his mother's skirt while she spoke and chirped in: "The kids is called 'lambus'—'black lambs'—when their fathers goes in to be black sheep, and I'll never be a lamb. I'm for the strikers, and I'll do without dinner 'fore I'd ask dad to go back."

Mrs. James McCarty, a stout, motherly dame, who sat in the front of her neat house in South Fifteenth street, looked rather disconsolate when the strike was mentioned. She has but one son, a worker in the tin mills, who gets a wage ranging from $3 to $15 a week.

"I ain't got no man to look to me," she said. "I got only one boy at home, and he worked hardly any all winter. It's hard work to keep the roof over the head and the bread in the stomach when there's no work to do. But I'm willing for him to strike when the rest does. There ain't no sense in workin' men not standin' together. They're worked like horses, anyhow, and if they don't stand together they'll be worse than horses."

"I'll put my hand to the washtub like any other woman does afore I'll let my man go back without the strikers' win," said John Adams' wife, a small, slim mother, who held a baby to her breast while she talked. "We have a little saved. My husband gets $18 a week, and out of that I can save a little when he works steady, fer he's a good man, and he don't drink none. But when the savior's are gone I'll go out and wash or I'll beg from door to door."

before I'd want him to do dirty work."

The pretty daughter of a mill worker in one of the iron mills, a brown eyed girl who is noted as the "belle of Black's alley," sat on the front steps of her home and laid down some stringent laws for the men who make strikes possible.

"It's them as never knows what want is," she said. "They go off on yachts and wear diamonds, but they don't know what it is to stand before a puddle furnace all the year round and burn the brains out of your head. If they did, maybe they wouldn't be so ready to sit in their offices, with electric fans around them, and make terms which has all the good on one side."

"I've been with Charlie for near two years now, and we was hopin' to be married this fall, but I'd wait forever sooner than see him go scabbin' or blacksheepin. If he did that, I'd never look at him again."

All over the streets it was the same. In bright little parlors where the elegance of a piano lamp transformed shabbiness the sentiment was "I'll stand strong together," and in the back alleys where the only sunshine is in the faces of little children paternal women voice their willingness to go forth to wash-tub or to beggary ere they will urge their men to give in.

"Workin' men is what their wives make them," said Mrs. Mary Leslie, a determined looking woman, who secured a frying pan while she spoke. "As long as the women don't naze them they'll stand together. I don't know what it's about—something about a peckin'. I always let him attend to the thinkin' part of the family. I have enough to do to cook the meals and clean the house without meddlin' in what's none of my business, but I say, if it belongs to the union, for him stay out as long as the union says, and I'll do my part toward keepin' the house together."

Mrs. James, not a young woman, living in Ribey's court, showed a tin box on which the word "Strike" was roughly painted. "Every time that comes in this house goes in that box," she said, "and has for years. When other men struck and my man wasn't called on, the box was open for them as needed it. Now we'll need it ourselves, but there's enough in here to keep us goin' on bread at least, and I'd rather eat the roots of them weeds in the yard there than starve in a world arin' where's for the good of the workin' man."

Little children march around the corners armed with sticks and flags and announce that they "are goin' to guard the mill gates from the black sheep."

Strikes are organized on every doorstep and in every back yard, and everywhere enthusiasm is expressed.

When asked how long they could hold out, the almost universal answer was, "Six months." Some said a year, relying on the help from the union, but most of them lean on their own possible resources and labor.

In some of the tin mills, which are a big part of Pittsburgh's industry, there are hundreds of girls employed in the various departments, and in a few of the other mills women work side by side with men. None of these is personally interested in the outcome of the strike, but each and every one believes in it as in her religion and would speak words of inspiration to the flagging energies of the men were they needed. One buxom maiden called Annie by her companions and whose feather trimmed hat and general Sunday appearance proved her idleness was walking around the scene of her usual employment viewing the closed doors and empty yards with the air of a successful leader of strikes.

"I'd never give in if I was them," she said, shutting her teeth with a snap. "I'd hold out until I was found starved in my tracks rather than come back to work without what I struck for. I told the men that, and I'd tell them again if I thought they needed it."

"Ten dollars a week is better than nothin', Annie," said her companion, but Annie's eyes snapped as she replied. "Ten dollars a week wouldn't never pay me for bein' a disgrace to my country by blacksheepin. It ain't money what's struck fur; it's principle, and I say principle every time."

To them principle represents union for the workman, power in future, prosperity in labor and all conditions of workers transformed and improved. One and all they stand together, ready to work for the bread they afterward bake and ready to starve without bread, if need be, that the strikers have some support to wit their cause.

Of the 55,000 or 60,000 strikers fully 80,000 are common laborers, whose earnings are never more than $150 per day. They can stand the strike longer than the men who earn $3 per day. The laborers are not members of the Amalgamated association and are not on strike except through sympathy with the union men.

WIDENING RURAL DELIVERY.

Box Feature of the Plan is Proving Quite Popular.

People who live in the country districts of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey and the New England states are just beginning to hear of the new order of the postoffice department at Washington making it part of the duty of the star route mail carriers to deliver mail in boxes put up by patrons along the route.

The first effect is a general protest from the carriers. The box feature is proving quite popular, but every new box which is set up means an extra stop on the trip, says the Philadelphia Times. The carriers had ample notice, but they did not figure that their work would be increased materially. Now they think they should be given more time between stations. The department is disposed to be reasonable and will encourage the growth of the box service.

GOOD

Progress Made by Firemen

With the Plans

For Fire Department and Band Meet.

Subscription Solicitors Have Met With Encouraging Success.

Two Days in Either the First or Second Week in September Will be Selected for the Tournamant.

The efforts that are being exercised by chief Coates and the other members of the fire department in behalf of the fire department and band tournament that is proposed to be held in this city about the first or second week in September, have, so far, met with success that is very encouraging to the promoters of the enterprise which if successfully carried out, will be an excellent card for Lima. Chief Coates and the other members of the department, all of whom have been doing their best to advance the project, have met with good success in the circulation of the public subscription paper and if the work progresses at the rate it has been going since the project was launched, the funds necessary for the provision of the prizes that must be offered the tournament is sure to be a success.

It is the intention of the fire department, under the auspices of which the tournament is to be given, to have the program extend over two days, with contests in the use of hand fire apparatus and runs and operations with hook and ladder trucks and band contests. There are to be no less than three prizes in each event, and in the band contests there will be a number of events, the contesting organizations being divided into three classes, and the separate classes designated as classes "A, B, and C." No entry fees will be charged the organizations that desire to contest for any of the prizes and already quite a number of letters have been received by chief Coates from bands and fire departments that are anxious to enter the events in which they may stand a chance to win a prize. The soliciting committees will continue their work at once, there being a large number of prominent citizens who have not yet been solicited, and the date for the tournament will be selected and the entry list sent out as soon as possible.

LABOR DAY

May be Celebrated in Lima Again This Year.

Proposition Has Been Launched and
If Favorably Received Will be Carried Out.

A plan to hold a labor day celebration in this city on the regular date of the holiday, the first Monday in September, this has been started by some of the leading labor union men of the city and if the project receives the proper support and encouragement from those who are in position to assist the proposition, it will be taken up in earnest by those who are now behind it. Lima has not had a Labor Day celebration for several years and there having been no Fourth of July celebration here this year the plan should meet with the approval of the laboring men and the citizens generally. Last year the city had a rousing Fourth of July celebration and the military encampment and both were declared a success and a credit and a good thing for the city and business generally. This year there has been nothing in the line of a public celebration and the merchants have been complaining about the city being dull.

VETERAN

Trainer A. N. Smeall
Thrown at Bucyrus.

Two Sulkys Mixed But No
One Badly Hurt.

Lima Horses Came Home and Will
Scatter to Various Towns
Within the Next Few Weeks.

The smashing of records was by no means the only exciting feature of the free-for-all race, says the Bucyrus Forum. On the fourth heat there was an accident in which Marshal and Texas Jessie, together with their drivers, miraculously escaped with their lives. Texas Jessie is a Canadian mare. At the west turn in the track she was thrown by her hobbles, turned a complete somersault, carrying with her both sulky and driver. Marshall, the powerful black gelding close behind, driven by Doc Smeall, of Lima, leaped over the mare, upsetting his sulky and throwing his driver to the track with great violence. The latter horse continued driverless around the track and was captured easily near the judge's stand, but the Canadian mare was entangled in her harness and unable to rise. Fortunately neither of the aged drivers sustained any serious injuries. It was a narrow escape and while some of those who witnessed the tragic occurrence forgot it instantly and followed with eager interest the remaining horses as they sped around the track and up the home stretch, others immediately rushed from their seats to the scene of the disaster, anxious to learn if any one was killed or injured.

While a few of the horsemen were dissatisfied with the action of Starter Blume in imposing fines, and declared their purpose to remain away from Bucyrus hereafter, the great majority were pleased with the treatment received especially at the hands of the officers of the association.

Cecilia was the only Lima horse to win first money at Bucyrus but several of the others got a small slice of the purse. The 2:15 pace had eleven horses to start and was an exciting race, the best time being made in 2:11, lowering the track record four seconds. Lena Hill was expected to make a showing but wasn't inside the money.

Horsemen will be interested in a dispatch from Cleveland stating that Trainer Ed. Gibson has announced that it would be impossible to get The Abbott in condition for the race with Crescens at Brighton Beach on Aug. 15 and that the race had been officially declared off. This match was one of the most talked of events in turf circles for years. The Abbott and Crescens were matched to go a mile for a purse of $12,000, best three in five heats. However Crescens will go at Brighton Beach on August 15 and will go an exhibition mile to beat the world's record now held by The Abbott, and on the 15th will go for the wagon record of 2:04 1/2, also held by The Abbott.

SIDNEY

Will be Reached by Western
Ohio This Week.

By the last of this week the Western Ohio Electric railway company expect to have the grading done as far as Sidney. The workmen are now averaging about a mile a day. The line follows along the side of the infirmity pike until the fair ground is reached where it will take the middle of the road and run into Sidney. Four bridges are needed on the line between there and Piqua, one at Swift Run and one at the hydraulic near Piqua, one over the canal above Lockington and one over Labramie creek near Lockington. The measurements for the bridges were taken Friday. The Western Ohio people are pushing their work very rapidly in every particular.

The Second Ohio regiment broke camp at Toledo about 10 o'clock this morning. Reveille was ordered for 5 o'clock and breakfast at 5:30. All the baggage was ordered to be ready to move at 7:30 and five men from each company were detailed to handle it under the direction of Captain Howe, the quartermaster. All the tents remained in their present position, as they are state and not regimental property.

The regiment was ready to move at 11:30 a. m., and left the Ohio Central depot about 1 o'clock in its special train.

The entire regiment does not go back home immediately, as Company C of Lima, Captain Gale, Company G of Ada, Captain Denning, go to Buffalo to spend a week at the Pan-American exposition. These companies will camp inside the exposition grounds, where tents, straw, etc., are furnished free to them, providing they give an exhibition drill of one hour each day during their stay at the fair.

Companies C and G, says the Toledo Times, gave an exhibition drill last evening on the parade grounds after dress parade, and their captains certainly have reason to be proud of their company's work, as they are fit to compete with any companies of the National Guard in this or any other state. Captains Gale and Denning received many congratulations last evening for their respective companies. Company C is quite a famous company as it won the $1,500 prize for the best drilled company in the United States at Omaha in 1894, under the command of Major Bell.

Co. I, of Kenton, Captain Ausley, leaves this morning on the steamer City of Toledo for Sans Souci park, near Detroit. Their stay at that resort will cover about one week.

An inspection of quarters took place yesterday morning in the company streets. The inspection disclosed a very satisfactory condition of the quarters, which was very pleasing to the officers of the regiment.

Religious Services.

The religious services were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the grove near the headquarters and were fairly well attended. It was pleasing to note that quite a large percentage of the audience were citizens. The attendance of the soldiers was not all that could be wished for. Many excursionists from the homes of the boys, were in camp and this was probably the cause of the light attendance, as the boys have been working hard all week and spent the day entertaining friends.

There were no drills of any kind yesterday with the exception of dress parade and so the boys who were not on guard duty had plenty of time for rest.

Dress parade was held at the usual time and was attended by about 3,500 spectators who applauded each company as it passed along.

A great improvement has been made in the Second regiment since it came to camp. This is especially noticeable on parade. When the commands are given the rifles click and the long line of white-gloved hands move as one.

The officer of the day for today was Capt. Phelps of Company D, of Bell Center. The senior officer of the guard for today was First Lieutenant William B. Stroup, of Company I, of Kenton.

The junior officer of the guard for today was Second Lieutenant Lewis J. Hofman, of Company K, of Lima.

Second's Good Record.

The other regiments which go into camp at Toledo will have a record to beat when they try to surpass the conduct of the Second. Visitors to camp have been greatly impressed by the gentlemanly conduct of the Second regiment boys. Officers who have visited camps all over the state for years say they never saw a better behaved lot of soldiers in all their experience. Toledoans will always remember Camp Gyger and the Second is welcome in Toledo at any time. The officers and men of the regiment have nothing but words of praise for Mr. Burt and his assistants and this feeling is sincerely returned.

All those who have held any connection with the camp of the Second are ready to testify as to the good morals of the regiment and the members of the Second may go to their homes feeling that they have the admiration and respect of the entire city.

Colonel Ream will return to Toledo this week to visit the camp of the Third Ohio regiment.

Lieutenant Barnard, signal officer, who has been in charge of the officers' mess during the camp, was overcome by the heat last evening. He was removed to the hospital. He will probably recover in time to leave with the regiment.

The ladies who accompanied the regiment have had a very pleasant time in camp. Many little trips around the city and to the various resorts were enjoyed by them. They left today with the regiment.

Notes.

Captain John Bingham, of Lima, the regimental adjutant, is entertaining his wife and his sister, Miss Bingham, of Lima.

Being absent without leave is quite a serious offense as some of the boys who were guilty of the above offense will have cause to remember.

Company C, Captain Gale, of Lima, commanding, would come near to carrying off the honors for drills, as his company seems to be the best drilled in the regiment.

A few of the companies are going to take a little extra vacation. Company C, of Lima, Captain Gale, and Company G, of Ada, Captain Denning, leave for Buffalo Monday to attend the exposition. Company L, of Kenton, Captain Ausley, leaves Monday for a week at Tashmoor park, near Detroit.

Stanley Campbell, of Company C, of Lima, arrived in camp yesterday from Washington, D. C., where he has been spending his vacation.

The officer of the day for today will be Captain Morrison, of Company K, Lima.

The senior officer of the guard will be First Lieutenant Post, of Company F, of Spencerville.

STOPPED

A Young Lady on the Public Highway

And Made a Proposal Which Led to His Arrest—A Case from German Township.

Charles M. Lewis was brought to jail from Allentown to be held until he is prepared for a preliminary hearing on the charge of making an indecent exposure to Miss Bertha Poling, daughter of ex-auditor Poling.

Lewis is a stranger in the neighborhood and somewhat of a degenerate, as he appears to know but little about himself and less about the character of his offense. According to the story the defendant was driving along the road when he overtook Miss Poling and suggested that she stop at the bridge with him. The lady resented his remark and when she arrived at the village reported the occurrence.

Lewis was at once placed under arrest and taken before Squire Franzenfelter. He asked for time to consult an attorney and the preliminary hearing was postponed until he was prepared, but the precaution was taken to keep him safely and the constable brought him to Lima and turned him over to the sheriff.

THE IDLER.

Gets Another Line.

It is now a settled fact that Van Wert will have a north and south interurban line, in addition to the one contemplated by the Lima company from here to Fort Wayne. C. E. Deites secretary of the Van Wert Business Men's League will begin this week to take up right of way. When completed the line will run from Bryan to St. Marys, where connection will be had with the Western Ohio for Cincinnati.

Costly Fire at Ohio City.

The J. W. McMullen grain elevator was totally destroyed at Ohio City Saturday morning, and several thousand bushels of grain went up with the building. The property was protected by $10,000 insurance in several companies.

Last of the Quiniette.

Judge Tobias overruled motions for a new trial in the murder case at Upper Sandusky and Marsh Lindsay and Willis Miller the last of the five alleged murderers were sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Both of the men smiled when sentence was pronounced.
